The West Seattle Talon Tribune

March 2018

Attention All Members:

Last year at Grand Convention amendments were made to the Grand Constitution and Statutes and the Auxiliary Rules and Regulations. The 3-month dues payment grace period was shortened to a 1-month grace period.

All dues expire on May 31st and are considered delinquent on the 1st day of June. All members who are 1-month in arrears in their dues must be dropped by the Secretary from the rolls on the 1st day of July, or if the 1st day of July falls on a Sunday or a Holiday, then the next day following.

Brothers and Sisters:

Aerie #2643 has been thanked over and over again for providing the entertainment at the festive celebration of the 120th Anniversary of the Founding of the Eagles at Aerie #1. Check out their Facebook page posting on our behalf. The Spinnaker Drill Team was in excellent form. The rendition of the National Anthem touched all who heard it performed by a drill team member with a great voice. West Seattle Performing Arts wowed the audience with dancers who presented excerpts from the Nutcracker, their recent jazz dance called 'Wings' that symbolically took the Eagles into their future. The Seafair Pirates regaled all of us and the evening finished with a rockin band that made the evening a great time.

I would like to welcome the State Madam President, Kat Noldan to our Aerie for dinner hosted by the Aerie brothers on Thursday, March 1st. All are welcome and encouraged to honor her. Pork Roast, red potatoes, squash, salad and dessert will be on the menu.

Join us for Saint Patrick's day Saturday, March 17th for Corned Beef and Cabbage and a band to put the Green in your day.

On a special note we want to honor Nate Kiem for his stewardship of many of the events and programs at Aerie #2643. Nate is a familiar face that has volunteered his time and energy at so many events. Nate repaired the roof over Primp, the ceiling behind the bar and repaired the pantry. He volunteered for Thanksgiving Dinner, Harvest Festival, District 5 meetings and has always been a helping hand from painting and ground clean up and so much more. Nate has decided to step down as Vice President at this time. Any members that serve as officers and volunteer time to the Eagles deserve our gratitude. It takes all of us to keep this worthy organization rolling along and we greatly appreciate Nate's time as an officer.

Paul Shillam has graciously agreed to step into Nate's office as Vice President for the completion of this term. Paul has served as a Worth President several times for our Aerie as well as secretary and trustee. we fortunate to have him volunteering to serve at this time. Thank you Paul.

A warm invitation to continue to visit the Taco Master on Wednesdays, and grab some good eats at Fast Food Fridays. Join us on the second Friday of the month for President's Steak Night. Your continued support helps us keep the revenue flowing.

Spring is right around the corner and new life is peaking out in my yard so keep warm and visit the club to say 'HI' and help us build community and make new friends. Thank you for your ongoing support of our Aerie and all it does.

Submitted in Liberty, Truth, Justice and Equality,

Your Worthy President,

Armando Juarez

Brothers & Sisters:

I hope you all made it through the snow! It's hard to believe that Spring is only 3 weeks away. I saw a really cool picture on FB, snow on blooming cherry blossoms. Kinda made me laugh! Such typical Washington weather.

Sisters—elections for the upcoming Eagle year (June 1st-May 31st) are coming fast upon us. I would love to get some new sisters involved. Please come join us at a meeting to see if you would like to get involved. We really need you!! We will be lacking in officers.

The jar in the social room will be out through mid April. We are asking for donations for Tree House. One of State Madam President Kat Noldan's charities. If you haven't done so—please visit www.multicare.org/tree-house and read up on this wonderful charity.

Be kind to one another
