Annual Community Thanksgiving Dinner

Thursday, November 26, 2:00-5:00 PM

The West Seattle Eagles #2643 invites our members, neighbors, and the entire West Seattle community to join us for our FREE Annual Community Thanksgiving Dinner. Whether you are looking for a Thanksgiving meal, some companionship, or simply a warm and welcoming place to spend the afternoon, our doors are open to you. We'll be serving turkey with all the traditional trimmings, along with dessert. There is no charge for dinner, although donations are always greatly appreciated. This special day is one of the ways the Eagles live our motto, "People Helping People."

Volunteers Needed! It takes a lot of helping hands to make Thanksgiving dinner possible!

- Wednesday, November 25: Members are needed to help with food preparation beginning at 9:00 AM.
- Thursday, November 26: Volunteers are needed throughout the day to help with cooking, serving, and cleanup.

Sign-up sheets will be available in the Social Room.
Questions or want to help? Contact Dylan Lee at (206) 552-3664.

Thank you to everyone who helps make this annual tradition possible. We look forward to sharing Thanksgiving with our West Seattle community!

A Message from our Worthy President

Hello brothers and sisters,

As fall is upon us fake summertime the days are getting shorter. The roof project is completed.

We are raising funds for this project. $54k is our goal. I believe we are around 6k. Please contribute if you can. We had a very successful Oktobetfest. The auxiliary raised $4100 for the west Seattle food bank.

We also have some amazing meals coming out of our kitchen. Please participate.

Help Our Neighbors This Holiday Season

With the rainy weather here and the holidays approaching, it's a great time to support the West Seattle Food Bank and its Clothesline clothing program.

FOOD BANK | Round Barrel

Please donate unopened, non-perishable foods such as canned vegetables, beans, soups, tuna and chicken, canned fruit, shelf-stable milk, cereal, oatmeal and healthy snacks.

CLOTHESLINE | Large Square Box

The greatest needs include coats, men's clothing, work boots, children's clothing sizes 8+, backpacks, blankets, sheets, towels, new underwear and new toiletries. Clothing should be clean and in good condition.

Please fold clothing and place all Clothesline donations securely in bags or boxes before dropping them off.
This will help us keep donations organized and make them easier for our volunteers to transport.

Both donation containers are located near the Eagles' front door.

Every can of food, warm coat and blanket helps. Thank you for supporting our West Seattle neighbors and continuing our tradition of People Helping People!

A Message from our Madam President

Fall is in full swing, and the holiday season is just around the corner! Before we get caught up in all the festivities ahead, I want to extend a big thank-you to Linda and Mike Rackner for decorating the Social Room for Halloween. I don't know if I've ever seen it look so spooky!

We've had some amazing crafts over the past couple of months, thanks to our new Craft Chair, Kristin Rodgers! This month, we're welcoming back a returning favorite, Ednorah, who will host a holiday card-making session on November 22. Bring out your creative side and make some truly special, one-of-a-kind cards to share with friends and family this holiday season!

I also want to encourage everyone to get involved in whatever way feels comfortable. There are so many ways to give back to our club, whether it's checking IDs on band nights, baking cookies, selling raffle tickets, or simply striking up a conversation with a potential new member. Every contribution matters and helps make our club stronger!

We're also looking to expand the activities we offer our members, and we need your help to make it happen! We have some great ideas in the works, including bingo, bunco, mahjong, and more craft activities, but we need members who are willing to take the lead and help get them off the ground. You don't have to do it all on your own! If one of these activities sounds like something you'd enjoy helping facilitate, please reach out! Our officers are happy to help you work out the details and get things started. Talk to any of us (our pictures are on the wall when you walk in, so you can put a face to a name!) or email me at amy@WestSeattleEagles.org. With a few members willing to step up, we can offer even more fun ways to connect and enjoy our club!

I'm looking forward to sharing the warmth, fun, and festivities of this cozy season with all of you

Amy Ojendyk

Theo of Golden by Allen Levi

One spring morning, a stranger named Theo arrives in the small Southern city of Golden. He doesn't explain much about where he came from or why he's there—but when he visits the local coffeehouse, where pencil portraits of the people of Golden hang on the walls, he begins purchasing them, one at a time, and giving each portrait to the person depicted. In exchange, he asks only for the person's story. And so portrait by portrait, person by person, secrets are revealed, regrets are shared, and ordinary lives are profoundly altered.

A story of giving and receiving, of seeing and being seen, Theo of Golden is an unforgettable novel about the power of generosity, the importance of connection, and the quiet miracles that happen when we choose kindness and wonder.

People Helping People

Do you have some free time and would like to have a more active involvement in our club and community? Come and talk to an officer and see what you can do to be a part of our raising money for charity and benefiting our community.

There are lots of opportunities to participate without spending a ton of time. Anything from doing dishes for a dinner or checking IDs during street fair or another event helpes the club greatly.

If you want to take an even more active role in the club, talk to us about what is involved in becoming an officer. A couple hours a month is a worthy investment in helping to direct our path moving forward.

Our Mission Statement

The Fraternal Order of Eagles is an international non-profit organization uniting fraternally in the spirit of liberty, truth, justice, and equality, to make human life more desirable by lessening its ills and promoting peace, prosperity, gladness and hope.

Did you Know?

You can search for a nearby Aerie by going to www.foe.com and clicking on the Aerie locator. Perfect for when you are planning a trip this summer.
Or, you can pic up a book listing all the aeries in our social room.
